A resident-run and resident-staffed program of continuing education offering a wide range of lectures, classes, discussion sessions, field trips, and hands-on activities for the residents of Royal Oaks.

The Learning Tree faculty consists of resident authorities in a variety of topical areas as well as invited outside experts. There are two semesters each academic year that runs from September through May.
The Learning Tree motto is “Moving full lives in new directions...”

Research has shown that those who are socially, physically, and intellectually active live longer and more fulfilling lives. At Royal Oaks, residents are socially active. In addition, the Fitness Center at Royal Oaks provides the facilities and programming to provide residents with lots of physical activity. By providing intellectual stimulation, The Learning Tree is the third element needed for a long and fulfilling life.

A BRIEF HISTORY

Returning from a national conference in the fall of 2011, the Royal Oaks staff came home with a desire to establish a continuing education program for Royal Oaks residents. They asked residents Jerry & Carol Bryan to lead the effort. Jerry & Carol recruited a committee of volunteers to help design and launch the program. “The Learning Tree at Royal Oaks” became its name and “Moving full lives in new directions” became its purpose.

A survey was conducted to determine the level of interest among Royal Oaks residents as well as their topical areas of interest. The areas identified included Arts & Music, Culture, Health, History, Humanities, Literature, Philosophy, and Science as well as Current Events and Creative Pursuits.

Armed with the results of the survey, the committee worked during the spring of 2012 to identify the lectures, courses, discussion sessions, and hands-on activities to offer; and to recruit the speakers, discussion leaders, and instructors needed to conduct these offerings. Once complete, they produced and distributed a catalog of courses describing the resulting curriculum and faculty.

The Learning Tree’s first semester was launched in September of 2012. A total of 22 lectures, 3 courses, 3 discussion groups, and 1 hands-on activity were offered during that first semester. During its second semester, the Learning Tree offered 26 lectures, 6 courses, 2 discussion groups, and 1 hands-on activity. Attendance numbers and comments from attendees suggest the residents enjoyed these programs, and that they consider the Learning Tree to be a positive addition to the Royal Oaks lifestyle.

During the summer of 2013, the Learning Tree launched its first Summer School with three book discussion groups, a beading class, and a reader’s theater group.

It is, therefore, with great pride that we present this third catalog of courses. The Learning Tree’s second fall semester will begin in September of 2013.

Luke Air Force Base
To Be Determined
Tuesday, 9/17/2013
7:00 PM-8:00 PM

The 56th Fighter Wing at Luke AFB, a unit which historically has proven to have fighter pilots second to none, continues a mission that has been identified with Luke since 1941: to train the world's greatest F-16 fighter pilots and maintainers, while deploying mission-ready warfighters. Luke AFB currently has 138 F-16 aircraft, 24 squadrons, six tenant units; and since 1941 has graduated more than 56,500 pilots in 13 airframes. The 56th Fighter Wing also manages 1.8 million of the 2.7 million acres that comprise the Barry M. Goldwater Range in Southern Arizona. The U. S. Air Force, Army, Navy, Marine Corps, Air Force Reserves and the Arizona National Guard use the Goldwater Range for training, which is critical to our defense. Join us as we learn about Luke's role in our community.

How Not to Outlive Your Savings!
Justin Nardo
Tuesday, 9/24/2013
10:00 AM-11:00 AM

Due to increasing life expectancies, increased health insurance costs, and excess withdrawals, many retirees are running into the problem of outlasting their retirement savings. Also, some seniors are so afraid they are going to outlive their retirement that they refuse to spend anything. This class will help retirees understand how to balance between spending too much and not spending enough over their lifetime. Note: This is a morning lecture.

Bali Highs and Lows
Paul Clark & Pam Clark
Tuesday, 9/24/2013
7:00 PM-8:00 PM

Paul and Pam Clark will present a pictorial story titled, “Bali Highs and Lows.” For three months they served an international English-speaking congregation on the island of Bali in Indonesia. In a country which is 90% Muslim, Bali is the only one of 13,000 Indonesian islands which is 90% Hindu. You will see a touch of Bali’s spectacular scenery, its Hindu culture and history, and ways the Protestant Churches of Bali have blended Balinese dance, music and architectural style into their message.
Update on Gift & Estate Tax Law Changes
Robert Jeckel

Tuesday, 10/1/2013

10:00 AM-11:00 AM

Robert Jeckel will discuss changes in the Estate and Gift Tax Law which will impact many of us at Royal Oaks, specifically the change in the Federal Estate Tax Exemption, transfer of the exemption on the death of one spouse, requirements for filing the Federal Estate Tax Return, changes in the Federal Gift Tax Exemption, and changes in the use of Trust and Powers of Attorney to make gifts of our assets while we are alive. We have scheduled a special daytime lecture to bring you this important information in case you want to make changes to your estate planning in this tax year. Note: This is a morning lecture.

Heading Into the End of the Year
Wayne Stutzer

Tuesday, 10/1, 3/2013

7:00 PM-8:00 PM

Wayne Stutzer returns to The Learning Tree after rave reviews of his presentations last year. Once again he will present in two consecutive sessions. This time his presentation will focus on Federal Reserve policy, fiscal policy and the "Debt Ceiling", and reindustrializing America as we head into the end of the year. You won’t want to miss this popular and well-informed radio personality.

NATO: Crisis? What Crisis?
Carolyn Modeen

Friday, 10/4/2013

9:00 AM-10:00 AM

How has NATO’s agenda evolved since its inception during the cold war? With its military commitment in Afghanistan winding down and a recent successful campaign in Libya, what are the Alliance’s present-day security challenges? Resident moderator, Joanne Baran, will introduce the subject and DVD. Great Decisions has been produced for 57 years by the Foreign Policy Association and is proclaimed as a national flagship education program of the World Affairs Councils of America. Note: This is a morning lecture.

The Light of Christian Gnosticism
Clare Goldsberry

Tuesday, 10/8/2013

7:00 PM-8:00 PM

The Gnostic philosophy started before the Common Era, and by the end of the first century of the Common Era it had become a large and organized religious tradition that had followers throughout the Middle East and into the Far East including India and China. Many Gnostics incorporated Jesus and Christian ideas into the philosophy, and it is thought that at one time Gnostic Christianity was the largest Christian sect of them all.
What interests govern China’s engagement in Africa? Should China’s growing emphasis on political ties and natural resource extraction inform U.S. relations with African nations? Resident moderator, Betty Roberts, will introduce the subject and DVD. Great Decisions has been produced for 57 years by the Foreign Policy Association and is proclaimed as a national flagship education program of the World Affairs Councils of America.

Note: This is a morning lecture.

Hopi
Ellinor Rothberg
Friday, 10/11/2013
9:00 AM-10:00 AM

The Colorado Plateau in northeastern Arizona is a land of high open mesas, rocky canyons, and a few small streams. Ancestors of the Hopi people have been living here for over a thousand years. Many Hopi still reside in villages atop three mesas in northeastern Arizona on the Hopi reservation of over 1.5 million acres. The presentation includes the Pueblo Revolt and Hopi history as well as some of their traditions, housing, clothing, food, arts and crafts, and present day occupations.

Iran
James Garvin Sr.
Friday, 10/18/2013
9:00 AM-10:00 AM

Suspicion and a troubled history have blighted U.S.-Iranian relations for three decades. How can the United States and Iran move forward? Is the existence of Iran’s nuclear program an insurmountable obstacle? Resident moderator, James Garvin Sr. will introduce the subject and DVD. Great Decisions has been produced for 57 years by the Foreign Policy Association and is proclaimed as a national flagship education program of the World Affairs Councils of America. Note: This is a morning lecture.

Sonoran Desert Icon - The Saguaro Cactus
Kris Coates
Tuesday, 10/22/2013
7:00 PM-8:00 PM

Learn about our iconic Saguaro cactus. See what is inside the Saguaro, how it develops from a seed the size of a gnat, its relationship to nurse plants, how it ages and how long it lives. Find out who eats it and more!
Assessing Threats to the U. S.
Fred Dorgin
Friday, 10/25/2013
9:00 AM-10:00 AM

How can the United States address the challenges of a weak economy, homegrown terrorism and nuclear proliferation? What threats and opportunities are presented by the ascendancy of China and by regime change in the Middle East? Resident moderator, Fred Dorgin, will introduce the subject and DVD. Great Decisions has been produced for 57 years by the Foreign Policy Association and is proclaimed as a national flagship education program of the World Affairs Councils of America.

West Valley Symphony Season Preview
Cal Stewart Kellogg
Monday, 10/28/2013
10:00 AM-11:30 AM

Join Maestro Kellogg as he discusses the composers and works to be performed in the Symphony’s 2013-14 season. The season begins November 3rd with a program titled “Birthday Bash of ’13” featuring composers Wagner, Verdi and Brittin. Mr. Kellogg will continue the conversation discussing the symphony’s December and January concerts, including “The Three B’s: Bach, Beethoven and Brahms.” You will be enlightened and ready to listen at every West Valley Symphony 2013-14 concert. This is a morning lecture.

The Civil War: A Railroad War
John W. Kohl
Tuesday, 10/29/2013
7:00 PM-8:00 PM

The Civil War as a railroad war is one of history’s best kept secrets. In school we learned about generals, major battles and dates. From television and movies, we have seen the infantry, the cavalry and the artillery units fight historic and bloody battles. What many people did not learn was the significant role the railroad played as armies became larger and larger, battles occurred over many states and moving troops and supplies became critical. This program traces the role the railroads played from the beginning to the end of the epic Civil War era and the push for a transcontinental railroad.

Georgia O’Keeffe
Allen W. Reamer
Tuesday, 11/5, 7/2013
7:00 PM-8:00 PM

In this talk Georgia O’Keeffe’s life and art will be discussed year by year. We will see how her painting style changed, when it changed and where it changed. You will discover how sickness influenced her life at critical times and how specific people helped her career. We will also discuss the composition of her paintings.
Update on National Health Care Reform
Fred L. Brown
Tuesday, 11/12/2013
7:00 PM-8:00 PM

Last year we learned about the history of events leading up to the passage of The Affordable Care Act, the most significant piece of legislation since the passage of Medicare in 1965. Now, a year later, Fred L. Brown updates us and tells us what has happened in the last year and what is expected for health care in the future.

Who Really Discovered America
Edson F. Allen
Tuesday, 11/19, 26/2013
7:00 PM-8:00 PM

Christopher Columbus gets the credit – but was he really the first to reach America? It took many years for historians to accept the fact that the Vikings arrived nearly 500 years earlier. But stories abound of other explorers who discovered lands across the sea . . . Welsh, Irish, Portuguese, Moors, Phoenicians, Israelites, Egyptians, Africans coming from the East; Chinese, Japanese, Afghans, Polynesians arriving from the West. We’ll begin our investigation with a closer look at Columbus followed by a look at explorers who may have reached our shores well before him. We’ll examine the folklore and supporting evidence – and you can decide what is fact and what is fiction.

Arizona’s Cowboy Christmas Show
Gary “Arizona” Johnson
Tuesday, 12/3/2013
7:00 PM-8:00 PM

Arizona’s Cowboy Christmas Show is a musical entertainment of Christmas songs and western songs performed by Western Music Association singer Gary “Arizona” Johnson. While Gary is serenading the audience singing White Christmas, Jingle Bell Rock and other songs, his Arizona Highways Magazine quality images and historic images will be simultaneously projected behind him. Gary has performed this show at the Arizona Biltmore Resort, the Wigwam Resort and the Camelback Inn to crowds as large as 2000 people.

"Never stop learning; knowledge doubles every fourteen months."
Anthony J. D’Angelo, The College Blue Book
Dr. Gaballa believes the healing power for heart disease lies within one’s own body. His presentation discusses his use of a procedure that will regenerate non-embryonic cardiac stem cells for eventual replacement into the patient’s heart to repair damaged tissue after a heart attack. The outcomes of this research will transform the way cardiac care is delivered for generations to come.

What’s all the screeching about, anyway? Why do they sing in some incomprehensible foreign language? And how come the guy with the low voice is always the villain, the guy with the high voice gets the girl, and the lady singing really high dies at the end? In this lively and informative talk using videos, audio recordings, and PowerPoint, Professor Schildkret looks at how operatic conventions arose from its history and how, despite all those silly formulas, opera can be one of the most rewarding experiences in the theater, if you go in with just a little knowledge.

“Only the curious will learn and only the resolute overcome the obstacles to learning. The quest quotient has always excited me more than the intelligence quotient.”

Enjoying Wine - The Fundamentals
Dave Brechner

Five Wednesdays
10/2, 9, 16, 23, 30/2013
9:30 AM-11:30 AM

Held in the Game Room
Class limited to 36

If you’ve ever wondered how to order wine in a restaurant, read labels properly or buy wine wisely, this class is for you. Dave will teach us all this and more. You’ll learn how to taste and evaluate wines, how to store wine properly and how to have a successful wine and cheese party. There are four lecture sessions, and the fifth session will be a wine tasting.

Stress Reduction
Carol-Ann Henritze

Four Fridays
10/4, 11, 18, 25/2013
11:00 AM-12:00 PM

Held in the Chapel
Class limited to 20

While life can be stressful, distress is optional. The events in life are neutral. Stress is due to our response to those events, not to the events themselves. Learn to change your response and become more proactive in life and less reactive. Take back control with the practice of mindfulness, diaphragmatic breathing, progressive relaxation, guided imagery and suggestive therapy. "The greatest discovery of any generation is that a human being can alter his life by altering his attitude." . . . By William James. This is a repeat of the class offered in Spring 2013.

“Learning is not compulsory... neither is survival.”

W. Edwards Deming
Southwest Art
Allen W. Reamer

We will begin with the art and architecture of the prehistoric Southwest cultures and will continue with Native American art and architecture; Rocky Mountain School painters Thomas Moran, Albert Bierstadt and Thomas Hill; Western Artists George Catlin, Frederic Remington and Charles Russell; and finishing, time permitting, with Georgia O’Keeffe.

Fundamentals of Drawing: Line, Shading & Tone
Allen W. Reamer

You can draw in a short period of time. This course is for those who are starting to draw or who have not drawn in some time. We will concentrate on both line drawing and how to show three-dimensions. We will take a step-by-step approach. After going over some drawing terms and definitions, you will learn information about your drawing tools and supplies. We will first cover line drawing. You will learn how to make fundamental strokes. You will build on this skill by observing and drawing specific objects. Next, we will cover different shading methods. First you will learn how to produce the different shading methods. Next you will have the opportunity to learn to observe and draw from a variety of objects. Each technique and skill will be demonstrated to show you how to do it.

Habla Espanol!
LaNae Penfold

This beginning Spanish class, using the book Madrigal’s Magic Key to Spanish, starts with the premise that a person already knows MANY words in Spanish, giving him or her a head start. The author also uses a rather unorthodox order of introducing the tenses which makes for an interesting approach to the language. Don’t worry if you haven’t had Spanish recently or ever. Everyone is more than welcome. Bienvenidos a todos. Your tuition will include the cost of the book which will be provided.
The Gift of Years II
Kathryn Vegso & Joan Lundeen
Four Thursdays
10/17, 24, 11/7, 14/2013
10:30 AM-12:00 PM

Held in the Game Room
Class limited to 12

A series of sessions devoted to the discussion of The Gift of Years: Growing Older Gracefully by the internationally known author and lecturer, Joan Chittister. In her book, she invites us to embrace our aging as a natural part of life: a life that is active and contemplative, productive and reflective, and deeply rewarding. These are the capstone years, a time in which a whole new life is beginning. Tuition includes the book which will be available before the first class. This is not a repeat of the previous class.

Laughter - For the Health of It
Carol Secord
Three Tuesdays
11/5, 12, 19/2013
10:30 AM-12:00 PM

Held in Auditorium A
Class limited to 30

In this course we will explore why it is important to experience more laughter, emphasizing the research-proven health benefits. We will also examine how to incorporate more of it into our lives in the retirement years. One of the results . . . being closer to others . . . will be experienced in the class as laughter is shared with classmates. Join us, and you may feel healthier and happier as a result of these three class sessions.

Container Gardening
Kris Coates
Three Fridays,
11/8, 15, 22/2013
10:00 AM-12:00 PM

Held in Game Room and the IC Patio
Class limited to 30

Learn how to plant and care for seasonal flowers, vegetable plants and herbs in various types of containers. Kris will include plant choices by season, potting soil mixes, feeding, watering, container size and light requirements. She will also share new ideas for unusual plant containers and illustrations of plant combinations. This class will be both lecture and "hands on." Tuition will cover the cost of pots, plants and planting soil. Each person will go home with three potted plants.

FACULTY BIOGRAPHIES

Edson F. Allen

Ed Allen and his wife, Loretta, have been coming to Arizona since 1975. When Ed retired from a career in advertising at the end of 1996, he and his wife knew where they wanted to spend their winters! Ed is active in the Del Webb Sun Cities Museum. He wrote the history of Sun City West and it was published in time for the 25 year anniversary activities. Ed heads the museum’s Speakers Bureau, is a regular presenter at RISE – Rio Salado Institute for Senior Education – and gives 20 or more talks a year to groups interested in history. He and his wife still retreat to Wisconsin for the summers.

Dave Brechner

Since 1967 Dave has been studying and tasting wines of the world. He is extremely knowledgeable in all matters pertaining to wine. Since 1968 he has organized and run many wine tasting groups, first in the New York area, and then (since his retirement in 1999) in Sun City Grand. After retirement he worked part time as a wine steward at AJ’s Fine Foods and attended many trade tastings every year. He makes a wine pilgrimage for a month every summer to California, Oregon and Washington to acquaint himself with over 100 new wineries. He teaches wine courses locally and organizes wine dinner groups. Dave is a wine collector who believes in acquiring, maturing, and then drinking fine wine at a reasonable cost. He is a passionate advocate of a "wine for all reasons."

Fred L. Brown

Fred L. Brown’s healthcare career spans 48 years. He has served in many prominent leadership roles including past chairman of the American Hospital Association and visiting professor and executive-in-residence at George Washington University in Washington, D.C. He was founding President and Chief Executive Officer of BJC Health Care in St. Louis, a healthcare network featuring 14 acute care hospitals. He is noted for his expertise in issues related to healthcare governance, operations, public policy, community health, and social responsibility.

Pam Clark

Patricia "Pam" Clark has a son, daughter and two grandchildren. She has served as a stockbroker, a banker and a real estate agent and is a graduate of Arizona State University with a degree in Accounting. Pam and her husband, Paul, are members of the Church of the Palms, United Church of Christ, Sun City, and have traveled widely.
Paul Clark

Royal Oaks resident Paul Clark is an ordained minister, having graduated from the College of Wooster in Ohio and Princeton Seminary in New Jersey. He has served churches in New Jersey, New York, California, Illinois and Arizona. In retirement he served two “Snowbird” congregations in the Imperial Valley of California and was an instructor of “Modern World Religions” at Imperial Valley College. In 2006 he came to Sun City to serve as Interim Associate Pastor at the Congregational Church. Paul has three sons, a daughter and five grandchildren. Paul met his wife, Pam, in Sun City and shortly after their marriage they spent three months in Bali, Indonesia, serving an international English-speaking church.

Kris Coates

Kris is a Certified Desert Landscaper & Master Gardener with 40+ years of gardening experience in California, Iowa, Texas and Arizona. She does a variety of gardening classes and presentations for the City of Surprise, EPCOR, The Master Gardeners’ Speakers Bureau, the Phoenix Home & Garden Show and local garden clubs.

Mohamed Gaballa

Dr. Mohamed Gaballa is director of the Center for Cardiovascular Research at Banner Sun Health Research Institute. With bachelor’s and master’s degrees in mechanical engineering, a doctorate in aerospace and mechanical engineering and a post-doctorate in cardiac medicine, Dr. Gaballa approaches his research from a scientific, as well as a mathematical standpoint. His investigations could someday turn back the hands of time for heart-disease victims.

Clare Goldsberry

A life-long student of religion, Clare grew up in mainstream Protestantism, joined the Mormon Church at age 21, and was excommunicated 10 years later. After a year at Claremont School of Theology studying for the ministry, she was called into Buddhism. While her personal belief system is very eclectic she is a practicing Buddhist of 20 years.
Chris Griffiths
Chris Griffiths is Professor Emeritus of Economics at Colorado College in Colorado Springs, Colorado, where he taught Macroeconomic Theory and Policy, among other things, for 35 years.
